Dear Ms. Collins-Nakles:

Enclosed please find a check for $11.04 to cover slide duplication costs and postage. Again, thank you for your trouble. We really appreciate having copies of your documentation.

I will send you a copy of the newsletter as soon as it is published, probably in mid-November. Also, do you know the address of David Bristow or The Star newspaper? Do you know the name of the town/city in which The Star is published?

We had dinner just the other night with a woman who does preservation work internationally. She had been contacted by an associate of Fugard's approximately three years ago while she was in South Africa for other reasons. The associate did not contact our acquaintance until the day she was leaving, unfortunately. In any case, we are following this lead as well; we'll keep you posted.

Sincerely,

Elaine Wintman
Assistant Director
