Dear Len,

Sorry it has taken so long to get back to you about the Zagar piece. We would still like to run it but your original article now needs some updating.

Also our US editor Tam Patterson feels that it should also be more critical and have more facts: eg about Zagar's background and his methods of financing such a big project. Also the questions regarding a 'non-outsider' working like an 'outsider' and the differences with genuine outsider art.

If this is something you would be prepared to tackle please let me know and we can take things further.

Many thanks.

Best regards,

This is an academic question that could be a whole additional article & that's the "critical" part turned me off.
