Dear Fred,

Just wanted to say hello and find out what is happening with St. EOM's place.

We are working on our next newsletter and would like to do an update.

Some St. EOM pieces seem to be on the market - is the committee selling some pieces to pay for the restoration?

If you or another St. EOM committee member could write a column worth of information that could be helpful to your activities and enlighten our members it would be appreciated. Any info would be helpful.

When we talked the last time you said you could share some information on a few near by (GA) not popularly know sites - I don't remember the names but any new/current information on anyplace would be useful.

I hope this finds you well and busy.

My best,

Seymour Rosen
