Dear Annie,

The last of the year and the holidays always brings back the pleasant memories for me - but I've thought of our meeting many times since we visited last July.

I just wanted you to know what a pleasure it was to meet you and talk and see all the wonderful things you have been doing for the last 30 years. My work takes me all over the country - but I have never see a place of more magic than yours.

Your stories bring your sculptures alive - I hope you will consider a film being made so you could tell your stories. As you said, you want the work shared with lots of people. This might be a good way.

I have shown photos of your house and read some of your poems to people in Los Angeles and all were excited by what they saw and heard. We are trying to come up with some ideas to share your wonderful work and still protect your privacy.

If we can be of any help to you - please let us know. I hope to be able to visit again, soon.

My best to your family, be well!

Happy Holidays,

Seymour Rosen
