Dear Mr. Rosen:

Thank you for your inquiry and interest in the folk arts environment located outside of Denver, Colorado. I am enclosing a copy of the Muse, Colorado's arts newspaper published for the Colorado Council on the Arts and Humanities. There is a short article on page nine of the Muse regarding this folk art environment.

I forwarded your letter of January 31, 1983, to Brian Moroney, the man most responsible for the preservation of this building. Much to our dismay, this building has been the victim of much vandalism since the fall of 1982. I am in hopes that Brian will contact you, and that you can be of service in helping to preserve the remaining contents of the building.

Once again may I thank you for your interest. Perhaps the enclosed article will be of help in giving you some idea as to the contents and scope of the folk art contained within this environment.

Sincerely,

David A. Brose
Folk Arts Coordinator

Thanks enjoyed your article - we have been in contact with Brian Moroney - from your description it sounds like a worthwhile site, with a potential for preservation
I hope the CO Council on the Arts & Humanities can set someone loose for a through documentation of the site
