Dear Hr. Fox,

Here is the information you requested on Rolling Thunder. He are yery pleased that he was chosen to be honored by the State of Nevada.

Eorn - November 11, 1911 in Oklahoma

- 1922 Moved to California where he worked at various jobs including trapping, wood cutting and tree triming
- 1930's worked for the Forest Service and for a number of Police and Sheriff departments and started wood carving
- 1940's was in the Airforce and Commandos in Furope. After the war he became a liethodist pastor and worked with kids
- 1950's worked for the Police department and started Junior Police groups in Butte County (CA)
- 1960's Private Investigator in Redding, CA and worked in the Sacramento Valley Museum and Euilt a museum in Shasta County (CA). He also did sculpture near Croville
- 1968 moved to Nevada near present site first built a private home, which is still standing and then started building the Thunder Mountain Museum, other buildings and a great deal of sculpture.

Qver the years many people have documented Thunder's work - it has appeared on television in a number of European countries, as the cover story of the first Art Express, in a number of slide shows as well as the subject of a film and the subject of uncounted newspaper articles around the world.

It is a major piece of Art. I hope you are able to talk to Thunder and fill in the many blanks. This is as complete as we can give at this time.

My best,

Posen
