

---

This exhibition was organized and selected for the Squires Student Center by Ray Kass in cooperation with Ann Frederick Oppenheimer. Ray Kass is a painter, professor of art at Virginia Tech, and a board member of the Jargon Society. He has organized numerous exhibitions and the Finster Workout.

Ann Oppenheimer is an art historian and photographer. She was the director of the Howard Finster Folk Art Festival at the University of Richmond, 1984.

Essays by Ann Frederick Oppenheimer, © 1986.

Squires Gallery
Squires Student Center
Virginia Tech
Blacksburg, VA 24061

INTUITIVE ART: THREE FOLK ARTISTS

Abe Criss, Howard Finster, and James Harold Jennings

March 31 – May 9, 1986

Lecture: Tom Patterson, Executive Director of the Jargon Society, Winston-Salem, NC
Friday, April 18, 4:00 p.m. Browsing Library, adjacent to Squires Gallery.

Reception for the artists: Friday, April 18, 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. Squires Gallery

Squires Gallery, Squires Student Center

Virginia Tech, Blacksburg, VA 24061