

Seymore -

Heres some stuff on Laura Pope. I spaced out the 57. EOM thing. I've sent letters to National Museum - High Museum and Georgia Museum Trying to elicit support for Laura Pope's stuff. At best I think we might be able to get National Museum to acquire a few pieces.
The guy who owns it is nice enough but isn't interested in preserving but would let a museum have it. I'll let you know.

I'll call some time soon. There are a number of places you mentioned in your book which I'd love to see so maybe you could give me directions.

I'll be in Cal sometime around 3rd week in Aug.

Happy Trails
