Dear Leonard,

I'm having copies made of the video. I'll also buy shipping envelopes. The easiest way is for me to do the shipping here. Send me the checks, unendorsed, and make certain I have the name and address of the person ordering the video. Usually it will be on the check but not always. I'll cash the checks here and use the money to pay for the copies and the shipping costs. What's left over, I'll send to you to pay for paint. I don't think we'll have many orders. If we do, we'll have to work out a system for when I'm in Europe.

Producing the video cost me $1,709.26 cash out of pocket, but I've never expected to see any of that money back unless there was a sale to TV. I did that video because I wanted to do it, not to make money.

I'm returning your fifty dollar bill. Don't know what it's for. Buy paint with it.

I'm still excited about Santa Barbara. Best thing that could have happened, I think.

Best,
