Dear Ms. Smale:

Thank you for your correspondence, requesting permission to reprint a quote from an article by Regina Hackett published in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer on October 4, 1987.

As we discussed on the telephone March 16, 1995, the editor and publisher, J.D. Alexander, has granted permission to reprint the quote - one time only - in your brochure for The Friends Of The Walker Rock Garden. Any future use would require a new request for permission.

We ask that you print the quote exactly as indicated by your letter and mock-up of the brochure.

Sincerely,
