Dear Staff:

Thank you very much for the recent issue of SPACES regarding Environments in Wisconsin.

We were happy to see the Dickeyville Grotto mentioned. The Grotto is still very popular amongst tourists. This past summer many busses of senior citizens stopped here.

The picture and article about the Paul and Matilda Wegner monuments on their farm was interesting. We would be interested in more information about this, especially the location.

No doubt you know about the Grotto in Rudolph, Wisconsin and in West Bend, Iowa - similar to this one at Dickeyville but much larger.

Keep up the good work!

Very gratefully yours,
