Dear Mary Ann,

Thanks for your letter, which adds to our files on the Galloway subject. It was good to talk with you, too.

Your letter sounded a bit discouraged, and I wanted to take just a moment to tell you that your work is appreciated and that it does make a difference.

Your professional reputation will be furthered through this, but more than that, the American arts will be enriched by your efforts. What you're doing is more than a short-term drain on your energies-- it may result in a long-term gain for not just the Galloway site, but the genre as a whole.

This is just meant as a pat on the back--and to tell you that while the going is slow, it's worth it. Keep it up and know that we're behind you.

Best wishes,

Seymour Rosen
