CREATE A PLATE

Sunday, September 7. Super Sunday this month features a plate making workshop. Children will be asked to make a drawing that will be transferred to a plate to be at The Orange Show's annual fund raising gala. If the young artists would like to have a plate of their own, there will be a $2.50 materials fee (plates will be delivered in four weeks). The workshop begins at 2:p.m.

EYEOPENERS

Sunday, September 21. The Orange Show is sponsoring a bus tour of some of the incredible places Houstonians have created. The 4-hour tour will visit the Beer Can house, various murals and decorated gardens, Priscilla the swimming pig's house and several other sites celebrating the urge to create uniqueness in the environment.

Cost of the tour is $12.50 per person for Orange Show members and $17.50 for non-members. Refreshments are included. Reservations are on a first-come first-serve basis. Call 552-1767 for more information.

TREASURE TIME

Super Sunday, October 5, The Orange Show's annual treasure hunt will begin at 2:p.m. Children under 12 years of age will be given written clues to help them find their way up and down and all around The Orange Show to find messages of good health and prizes for all, but only one special grand prize. Younger children who can't read will have a hunt of their own.

COALITION DAY

Saturday, October 11, The Houston Coalition for Visual Arts will sponsor a city-wide series of events highlighting the alternative spaces. At The Orange Show, we'll be giving tours from 12 to 7 p.m. You will be given a chance to record your impressions of The Show: finger paints and chalk for sidewalk murals will be available to visitors who wish to participate.

NEW MUSIC RETURNS

Saturday, October 18, Christine Baczewska and Michael Galbreth collaborating with Perry Webb will present an evening of new music. Galbreth coordinated the recent New Music America 1986 event and is recognized as a major artist. Grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Texas Commission on the Arts are funding a major work called "The Human Tour" that will be installed and performed this spring during The Houston Festival.

Baczewska will do a piece especially created for The Orange Show entitled "A Flashlight, An Orange, and A Tennis Ball." The piece utilizes her voice, percussion, taped fragments and drones to spontaneously create an "of the moment" work of music.

DiverseWorks is co-sponsoring this event, and the performance will be held at the gallery, 214 Travis in case on rain. Performance begins at 8 pm. Admission $5.00.

SCULPTURE SYMPOSIUM '86

Friday, October 24, Sculpture Symposium '86 featuring major sculpture exhibits, a symposium and state-of-the-art technical workshops, will utilize The Orange Show for performance pieces at 8:30 p.m. For more information about The Sculpture Symposium call Jana Vander Lec, 861-5800.

ON THE COVER

Jan Burandt, a sculptor, has won the t-shirt design competition judged by Derek Boshier and Rachel Hecker. Jan's design features three McKissack birds teetering on orange halves, with the inscription "one to three oranges every day is enough." We love it! The shirts will be printed back and front in three colors (blue, yellow and orange) on white. They'll be available by October 1. Our thanks to Jan, Derek and Rachel and to all who submitted designs.

MEMBERSHIP ORANGE DRIVE

We always need your support, but now it could benefit you! Donna Lewis is chairing a special membership drive. Through the generosity of several local individuals and businesses, we have several wonderful door prizes. Each $25 membership entitles you to a chance in the drawing, which will be held October 31st. In addition to all the other benefits, now there's another reason to fill out the membership coupon on the back page.

A CALL TO ARTISTS

The Orange Show is creating several hundred individual works of art on plastic plates, and we are interested in including as many of our artist friends that we can! Please call Sharon Kopriva at 552-1767 for more information.

MAKE A PLATE FOR THE ORANGE SHOW!

The Orange Show, a kind of visionary fantastical miniature Disneyland, is considered by artists and historians to be one of the finest examples of environmental folk art in the United States. It is the work of one man, Jeff McKissack, who for 26 years dedicated his life to the creation of this monument to the orange.

Constructed of concrete block masonry, with balconies, galleries, and an outdoor amphitheatre, it contains handmade metal sculpture, gates and wagon wheel railings as well as a whimsical maze, models, and narrative exhibits all extolling the virtues of the creator's favorite fruit.

McKissack worked alone, with his own hands, conceiving and constructing his private utopia, spelling out his philosophy of hard work and creating what he called a "health show." He believed that the orange was the perfect food and that it gave the body perfect energy.

THE VICKI MILLER CONCERT SERIES FOR CHILDREN

The Brown Foundation and Ms. Marilyn Lubetkin have generously funded a special concert series for children dedicated to the memory of Vicki Miller. Ntozake Shange will provide the artistic direction for this series of participatory events for children. Local artists will lead explorations of dance, music, poetry and the visual arts. The series will be conducted with children from J. P. Henderson Elementary School, and will be open to the public, beginning this spring.

The Orange Show Foundation is funded in part by the City of Houston through a grant from the Cultural Arts Council of Houston
