This quote was in the Friday July 23, 1965 issue of the Los Angeles Free Press. "Sustain the vision". "Though a desire to build unauthorized and unorthodox architecture may be less rare than most of us realize, the will to carry out the realization is the truly remarkable achievement.
Many may feel themselves inspired; especially after a few drinks, lots Of men and women sense stirrings of original genius. What distinguishes The real genius is the ability to sustain the vision." Edward James. Poet
