Mr. Art Beal,

Dear Friend:

Well How are you by this time? we are all well as usual.
Mary the girl that was in 89 got married and moved out she married that windy fellow name Jack.
Fine wife at that she may be as good as he is. I see a letter from you to G. H. Schell But I don't know where to send it as they haven't wrote to me as yet. If they don't write to me soon I will just send it back to you. Things are very dull here.
Lots of empty rooms now. Several of them needs some one in them.
If I was the boss, I would rent them If there was any chance at all I would cut the rent down so as they would stay in place of that they rent them a room high one well and the next week they will find a cheaper place and out they move. I would fill them if it was me wouldnt you. I sure would be glad to come down to see you if it were possible But dont look too strong for me. I would enjoy some of that cold water that is running out of the rocks That puts me in the mind of South Mo. you can stop most anywhere there and get a good cold drink, well as meas are very scarce here I will close for this time. Be good and let me hear from you when you feel like it.

your Friend,
A. C. Hailley.
