SECTION 1: The Carrier shall be liable for physical loss of or damage to any articles from external cause while being carried or held in storage in transit EXCEPT loss or damage caused by or resulting:

(a) From an act, omission or order of shipper;
(b) From defect or inherent vice of the article, including susceptibility to damage because of atmospheric conditions such as temperature and humidity changes thereon;

(d) From strikes, lockouts, labor disturbances, riots, civil commotions, or acts of any person or persons taking part in any such occurrence or disorder.

SECTION 4. If for any reason other than the fault of carrier, delivery cannot be made at address shown on the face hereof, or at any changed address of which carrier has been notified, carrier, at its option, may cause articles contained in shipment to be stored in a warehouse selected by it at the point of delivery or at other available points, at the cost of the owner, and subject to a lien for all accrued tariff and other lawful charges.

SECTION 6. As a condition precedent to recovery, a claim for any loss or damage, injury or delay, must be filed in writing with carrier within nine (9) months after delivery to consignee as shown on face hereof, or in case of failure to make delivery, then within nine months after a reasonable time for delivery has elapsed; and suit must be instituted against carrier within two (2) years and one (1) day from the date when notice in writing is given by carrier to the claimant that carrier has disputed the claim or any part thereof specified in the notice. Where a claim is not filed or suit is not prosecuted in accordance with the foregoing provisions, carrier shall not be liable and such a claim will not be paid.
